

Carboline is celebrating 70 years with...

70 Red Buckets of Surprises!

Tell us your Carboline story!

We want to hear your testimonial, is it a product you love, a tech service rep or customer service rep that went above and beyond? Have a picture of our red buckets on your project site? We'd love to see the picture, and hear the story! In honor of our 70th Anniversary this year we are celebrating with 70 Red Buckets filled with surprises. These buckets are going out to you, our customers! Every entry is a chance to win a bucket.

Buckets are filled full of great Carboline swag – one even has an iPad!

Entries will be collected from the launch date of the program, April 1, 2017, through October 31st, 2017. Drawings for 10 buckets will be held each month May-November, totally 70 winners. Prizes may be the same, buckets are chosen at random. Entries submitted early on are still in the running at the end of the program. Odds of winning depend on number of entries received. By entering, entrants are agreeing that name and photo may be shared as winners are announced, including but not limited to social media, Carboline website, and press releases. Carboline reserves the right to refuse entries if incomplete information is submitted.
